Kaddish

Upon Israel and upon the rabbis and upon the disciples and upon all the disciples of their disciples and upon all who study the Torah in this place and in every place, to them and to you
peace;

upon Israel and upon all who meet with unfriendly glances, sticks and stones and names – on posters, in newspapers, or in books to last, chalked on asphalt or in acid on glass, shouted from a thousand thousand windows by radio;
who are pushed out of classrooms and rushing trains, whom the hundred hands of a mob strike, and whom jailers strike with bunches of keys, with revolver butts;
to them and to you
in this place and in every place safety;

upon Israel and upon all who live as the sparrows of the streets under the cornices of the houses of others, and as rabbis
in the fields of strangers on the grace of the seasons and what the gleaners leave in the corners;
you children of the wind – birds that feed on the tree of knowledge in this place and in every place,
to them and to you
a living;

upon Israel and upon their children and upon all the children of their children in this place and in every place,
to them and to you
life.

The Mourner's Kaddish
A Memorial Prayer in Praise of God

Written in Aramaic, the Mourner's Kaddish is an almost 2,000-year-old prayer traditionally recited in memory of the dead. The prayer, which is included in all three daily prayer services and is recited in a minyan of at least ten adult Jews, makes no mention of death. Instead, it is a prayer dedicated to praising God.

For whom does one say the Kaddish?

Traditionally, Jewish adults are required to recite the Kaddish for a deceased parent, spouse, sibling or child. It is also permissible to do so for loved ones who are not parents, spouses, siblings or children.

When did Jews begin reciting the Kaddish?

This tradition dates back to the Talmud. The prayer was written in Aramaic, because it was the vernacular — the language spoken by most Jews at the time. In Nihum Aveilim: A Guide for the Comforter, Rabbi Stuart Kelman and Dan Fendel write that the prayer originally had nothing to do with mourning. Instead, it "was originally a call for the coming of God's ultimate reign on earth" and was often said following a study session or sermon, and came to be known as the Rabbi's Kaddish.

The Mourner's Kaddish was originally known as the Orphan's Kaddish and was said only by children for their parents, but now encompasses other mourners. There are also other forms of the Kaddish used in the daily prayers as well as a at funerals.

A YIZKOR MEDITATION

In Memory of a Relative Who Was Hurtful

Dear God,

You know my heart. Indeed you know me better than I know myself, so I turn to you before I rise for kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The person I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and dismay that a loved one could hurt someone as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to feel grief that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may be hidden and where grief for all that could have been may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger and that You will lead me from the desert to Your holy place. —ROBERT SAKS

Mourner's Kaddish

May God's great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be established in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the House of Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honoured, extolled and acclaimed—though God, who is blessed, b'rikh hu, is truly far beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And respond with: Amen.

May abundant peace from heaven, and life, come to us and to all Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May the One who brings harmony on high, bring harmony to us and to all Israel [and to all who dwell on earth].

And respond with: Amen.

קַדִּישׁ הַפְּרָטִי

Personal Kaddish

נִזְכֹּר אוֹתָךְ, יִקִּירֵנוּ שֶׁאָבַד לָנוּ. אֶת מַרְאֵךָ, אֶת הַבָּעוֹת פָּנֶיךָ, אֶת מְאוֹר פָּנֶיךָ, אֶת פְּעִימַת הַחַיִּים בִּתְנוּעוֹתֶיךָ, בִּצְחוֹקְךָ, בְּצַעֲרְךָ. אֶת קוֹלְךָ נִזְכֹּר, אֶת נִיצוֹץ הָאוֹר שֶׁבְּעֵינֶיךָ. חַי תַּעֲמֹד מוּלֵנוּ, לְרֶגַע אֶחָד, תָּמִיד. נִזְכֹּר אֶת מַחְשְׁבוֹתֶיךָ וְדֵעוֹתֶיךָ, אֶת הָעֵרֶךְ שֶׁנָּתַתָּ לָאֲנָשִׁים. אֶת מַה שֶּׁתָּמִיד הָיָה, וּלְעוֹלָם יִהְיֶה, אַתָּה עַצְמְךָ, הָאֶחָד, הַיָּחִיד, הַחַד פַּעֲמִי.

We will remember you, our dearly departed. How you looked, how you spoke, how your faces shone and the pulse of your lives -- your laughter and your pain. We will remember your voices, the spark of light in your eyes. You will stand alive before our eyes, one instant, always. We will remember your thoughts, your opinions, what you gave to others. What you always were, and always will be -- you, yourself, the one, the only.

יוֹם יוֹם נִתְאַבֵּל עַל מַה שֶּׁנִּגְדַּע אִתְּךָ – שְׁנוֹת הַחַיִּים, הֶעָתִיד שֶׁהָיָה יָכוֹל לִהְיוֹת לְךָ, הָעִסּוּק שֶׁהָיִיתָ יָכוֹל לִבְחֹר בּוֹ, לִלְמֹד מִמֶּנּוּ וּלְהַעֲשִׁיר אוֹתוֹ בִּתְבוּנָתְךָ. הָאֲנָשִׁים שֶׁיְּכֹלֶת לֶאֱהֹב, הַמִּשְׁפָּחָה שֶׁהָיִיתָ מֵקִים. הֲנָאוֹת הַחַיִּים הַקְּטַנּוֹת, וְגַם הַמּוּעָקוֹת וְהַצַּעַר: הַחַיִּים, עַל כָּל מְלֵאוּתָם.

We will mourn each and every day for what was lost with you -- years of life, the future you could have had, the profession you could have chosen, to learn from and to enrich with your ideas. The people you could have loved, the family you would have created. The simple pleasures of life, the crises and the pain: life in all its fulness.

וְאֶת מוֹתְךָ נִזְכֹּר. וְאֵיךְ פָּגַע בְּךָ רֹעַ אָרוּר וּמַחֲרִיד. וְנִזְעַק אֶת דִּבְרֵי הַמְשׁוֹרֵר חַיִּים נַחְמָן בְּיָאלִיק, "וְיִקֹּב הַדָּם אֶת הַתְּהוֹם! יִקֹּב הַדָּם עַד תְּהוֹמוֹת מַחְשַׁכִּים. וְאָכַל בַּחֹשֶׁךְ וְחָתַר שָׁם/כָּל מוֹסְדוֹת הָאָרֶץ הַנִּמָּקִים."

And we will remember your death. How you were set upon by cured, horrifying evil. We will scream out the words of the poet, Hayyim Naḥman Bialik, "Let the blood pierce the abyss! Let the blood pierce to the darkest depths! It will consume in the darkness, and undermine all the withering foundations of this world."

יָקָר שֶׁלָּנוּ, מַשֶּׁהוּ מֵאִתָּנוּ מֵת אִתְּךָ, מַשֶּׁהוּ נִחַיֶּה אוֹתְךָ – בִּזְכָרוֹן, בְּמִלִּים, בְּדִמָּעוֹת, בְּשִׂמְחַת, חַיֵּינוּ שֶׁתָּמִיד תִּהְיֶה מְהוּלָה בְּךָ, בְּכָל הַיֵּשׁ הַגָּדוֹל שֶׁהָיִיתָ, וּבְאֵינְךָ.

Our dearest, something of us died with you, and something of you lives in us. For as long as we live, we will carry you among us. Again and again we will give you life -- in memory , in words, in tears, in celebrating the life we live -- inseparaable from your presence, from the

In Memory of Our Departed

Exalted and Merciful God, who dwells on high, grant perfect peace in Your Presence among the holy and pure, whose light shines as the brightness of the heavens:

- To the souls of all the departed of Beth Tzedec Congregation and their families, whom we remember today for blessing, and who have gone to their eternity.
- And to the souls of our brothers and sisters, the soldiers of the Israel Defence Forces, who gave up their lives for the sanctification of Your Holy Name, in defence of our people and Land; they were swifter than eagles and stronger than lions.
- And to the souls of the soldiers of Canada and the Allies, who have stood against our enemies;
- And to the souls of the six million of our people: men, women, and boys and girls, who were murdered, abandoned, strangled, slaughtered, burned with fire, buried alive, for the sanctification of Your Name.
- And for the souls of all those who were have been murdered in the land of Israel and abroad at the hands of evil terrorist organizations.

They have all gone to their eternal home. We remember them and pray that their souls rest in Paradise. Master of compassion, shelter them forever. May their memory endure as an inspiration for deeds of truth, loyalty and kindness. Thus may their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal one is their inheritance; remember their sacrifice and may they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

In Memory of Martyrs

May God remember the souls of the martyrs of our people, who gave their lives for the sanctification of God's name. In their memory do I pledge tzedakah. May their bravery, their dedication, and their purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

In Memory of Congregants

May God remember the souls of our friends, members of this holy congregation, who have gone to their eternal home. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link us to their memory. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

> Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help us to perpetuate everything that was worthy in the lives of those no longer with us, whom we remember this day. May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

In Memory of the Six Million

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, amont the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all the men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered, strangled, and burned in the Shoah. May they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. ADONAI is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

TZEDAKAH. The Yizkor service was called matnat yad, the service expressng generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals: "Every person giving a gift according to the blessing the have received from Adonai." (Deuteronomy 16:17). Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love, and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honouring their memory and continuing their influence for good.

We Recall

Some of us recall parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.

Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife, husband, or partner with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.

Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of togetherness and love.

Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives.

So many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support us.

Though they are gone, we are grateful for the blessings they brought to our lives. We are sustained and comforted by the thought that their presence in our lives remains an enduring blessings that we can bequeath to others.

We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideas that they cherished.

O God of love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours.

Give us strength to live faithfully, for we are cheered by our confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to live on, even as we may not see their fulfillment.

Remembering

Someone laughs a certain way and suddenly I am seeing you.
The radio plays a song you used to love—and it feels as if you're here listening.
The evening light glistens on the trees and my heart stings, after so many years, with the loss of you.
The whole family gathers together… and each of us quietly feels the absence of you.

Holy One on high, Holy One of our inmost being,
some of us are consoled for our loss,
some of us today feel still inconsolable.
Some of us bear deep wounds in our heart;
other hearts have healed.

All of us remember, today, those we loved who no longer share with us this land of the living:

Grandmothers and grandfathers, mothers and fathers, sons, daughters, sisters, brothers, beloved husbands, wives, partners, cherished relatives and friends, sorely missed members of our congregation.

Eternal One, what are we human beings, that You should take note of us?
What are we frail mortal creatures,
that You should even consider us?
We are like breath; our days like a passing shadow.

I am mindful of how brief life is
For to be human is to see death.

How grateful we are for the once-presence of those we loved!
To have touched their soul, to have looked in their eyes,
to have felt their hand.
Life matters.

Oh, teach us to number our days that we may attain a wise heart.
That we may remember and mourn those we have lost and still celebrate the gift of their lives, the gift of life.
God, my God, You are my Rock and my ultimate Refuge.
I put my trust in You.

Yizkor

יהוה, מָה־אָדָם וַתֵּדָעֵהוּ,
בֶּן־אֱנוֹשׁ וַתְּחַשְּׁבֵהוּ.
אָדָם לַהֶבֶל דָּמָה,
יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בַּבֹּקֶר יָצִיץ וְחָלָף,
לָעֶרֶב יְמוֹלֵל וְיָבֵשׁ.
לִמְנוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדַע וְנָבִיא לְבַב חָכְמָה.

ADONAI, what are human beings that You take account of them, mortals that You care for them?
Humans are as a breath, their days like a passing shadow.
In the morning they flourish anew, in the evening they shrivel and die.
Teach us to count each day, that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

On this solemn day we each make judgments about the quality of our life.
We re-examine our deeds and relationships with our community and with others.
We express our yearnings for a new year, a new beginning, a year during which we commit ourselves to work toward bringing health and peace to all.
We long for a year when individually and communally we shall strive to live in a way that is more reflective of the ideals that we cherish.
Now, in the midst of looking at our life and assessing its quality, we pause to reflect and to remember, and to dedicate ourselves anew.

שִׁוִּיתִי יהוה לְנֶגְדִּי תָמִיד,
כִּי מִימִינִי בַּל־אֶמּוֹט.
לָכֵן שָׂמַח לִבִּי וַיָּגֶל כְּבוֹדִי, אַף בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֹּן לָבֶטַח.

God is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall.
Therefore I am glad, made happy, though I know that my flesh will live in the ground forever.

The deaths of those we now remember left holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives and we are strengthened by the blessings that they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

Preludes to Yizkor

Though I stared earnestly at my fingernail
Yesterday when I was on the #7 bus
I happened to look at the cuticle of my right forefinger and for a moment I thought not that it was mine but that it was my father's—

The same small confusion I have from time to time when I catch sight of my daughter in her denim skirt, size 3, and I feel lean, willowy, in her clothes.

So there I was on the #7 bus overtaken by a longing very close to love staring at the cuticle of my right forefinger.

I remembered how clean and short he kept his nails and suddenly there was the whole man reconstituted from a fingernail standing before me, smiling broadly, his face flushed with pleasure.

But then just as suddenly he was gone and though I stared earnestly at my fingernail
I failed to bring him back.

To Begin Again

In the years since my father's death, I have learned to trust, to hope, and to laugh again. After my first marriage, I somehow learned how to open my eyes, my heart, and my arms again. Throughout our lives we will, we should, feel the pain of our losses, the scars still present even after much time has passed. But we will also feel the strength of our spirit, the ability to persevere in the face of pain, the power to dream despite the many nightmares of existence, the stamina to push forward into the future carrying our past with us all the while. This is the power of God within us. This is our hope, our salvation. This is how we begin again.

A Prayer For Those Blessed With Living Parents

The following prayer may be recited by those blessed by having their parents still living while others are reciting Yizkor.

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, at this solemn moment I raise my eyes to You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart, thank You for Your mercy in having preserved the life of my beloved father and/or mother.

May it be Your will, O Lord my God and the God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their love, affection, and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe to them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your divine spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to You and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart.

Amen

Tzedakah/Charity

The Yizkor service was called seder matnat yad, the service of expressing generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals (when Yizkor is recited): "Every person giving a gift according to the blessing they have received from The Eternal." (Deuteronomy 16:17) Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honouring their memory and continuing their influence for good.

Kaddish (A Poem)

Look around us, search above us, below, behind.

We stand in a great web of being joined together.
Let us praise, let us love the life we are lent passing through us in the body of Israel and our own bodies, let's say Amen.

> Time flows through us like water.
> The past and the dead speak through us.
> We breathe out our children's children, blessing.

Blessed is the earth from which we grow, blessed the life we are lent, blessed the ones who teach us, blessed the ones we teach, blessed is the word that cannot say the glory that shines through us and remains to shine flowing past distant suns on the way to forever.
Let's say Amen.

> Blessed is the light, blessed is darkness,
> but blessed above all else is peace > which bears the fruits of knowledge > on strong branches, let's say Amen.

Peace that bears joy into the world, peace that enables love, peace over Israel everywhere, blessed and holy is peace, let's say Amen.

Dear Friends,

Yizkor is a time of memory. We gather as a community four times a year to recall our loved ones who are no longer living and to remember communally members of our congregation, martyrs of our people and others who have impacted our lives.

We like to think that our ancestors chose these Holy Days for Yizkor because they understood the impact of what psychologists call the Anniversary Effect—the feelings of sadness, loss and anxiety that come from connecting the dots of the calendar to the narrative of our lives. Who among us doesn't note the place setting and people at our dining room tables that are missing? We all do. We gather, therefore, on these days to pray, to remember, and to rededicate ourselves to the values we learned from our loved ones through Yizkor.

The act of simply being together on Yizkor is quite a powerful experience. As we look around we know that we are not alone; all of us are touched by loss. As the Psalmist says, we must all eventually, "walk through the valley of the shadow of death" (Psalm 23:4).

A common question regarding the practice of Yizkor is "do I stay or do I leave?" The Ashkanazi custom we are most familiar with is that if one's parents are living, and you have not otherwise been touched by loss, then you should not remain for the service. The bubbemeise (folktale) regarding this custom is that if we remain for Yizkor, we invite the Ayin Hara (Evil Eye) to cause trouble. This is a custom, however, it is not Halakhah (Jewish law). Further, since some of the prayers of Yizkor are communal in nature, such as the prayer for congregants who have passed, or the El Malay Rahamim for victims of the Shoah and for other martyrs of our people—those who leave are not afforded an opportunity to participate.

In other words, whether one chooses to stay for Yizkor or to leave is a personal choice. For some of us, that choice includes sensitivity to the customs of our parents and grandparents. One is not obligated to stay. Nor is one obligated to leave. When we commemorate Yizkor together this year, please choose the custom you find most meaningful.

We hope that this Yizkor Booklet will be a source of inspiration to you and your family. May you find comfort in the words of our liturgy, supplemental readings and the energy of being together in community.

Chag Sameach from our families to yours.

Introduction

We extend our warm and sincere condolences to all our members who have lost near and dear ones this past year. May the Holy One heal your wounds, lighten your burden of sorrow and give you renewed strength and consolation in the years ahead.

This Yizkor Memorial Book, Prayer Poetry Memory, has a number of objectives. In addition to the obvious purpose of providing a book of prayers and other readings for the Yizkor and other services, it also provides an opportunity to our Congregational community to memorialize the names of loved ones and to practise one of the principal mitzvot of the Yizkor prayers, "in loving testimony to the life of the loved one pledging tzedakah to perpetuate the ideals important to the deceased". Any errors or omissions are inadvertent, and we request your pardon if any have occurred. You may also wish to memorialize your loved ones by the dedication of a memorial plaque or a seat in the Synagogue Sanctuary.

This booklet is a prayer book that contains the name of God and should not be thrown out. You may take it for your personal use or return it.
